JEANNE MARIE CLAVERE is a 1987 graduate of the University Of Puget Sound School Of Law (now Seattle University School of Law). Prior to earning her law degree she received a Master of Business Administration from DePaul University in Chicago. In February, 2010 she joined the staff of the Washington State Bar Association as Professional Responsibility Counsel. After four years in a Seattle law firm, Jeanne Marie began her solo practice in 1992, focusing on estate planning, elder law (including complex and litigated guardianships, trusts, and guardian ad litem appointments), and contract based criminal prosecution in a tri-county area. As Professional Responsibility Counsel, Jeanne Marie serves as an advisor to members of the bar on the Rules of Professional Conduct as they apply to Washington State Bar Association Ethics Advisory Opinions, the Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct, and the ABA Standards for Imposing Lawyer Sanctions. She has been invited to lecture on Professionalism, Civility, and Ethics at all three Washington law schools, and speaks at various local and minority bar CLE's throughout the state. Jeanne Marie is the primary responder on the Washington State Bar Association Ethics Line which handles almost 3000 calls a year from Washington State licensed legal professionals all over the globe.

While in private practice Jeanne Marie appeared before a wide range of courts and tribunals, ranging from Ex Parte hearings to trials on guardianship and criminal issues, and served for many years as a Settlement, Litigation, Adoption, Family Law, Incapacity and Probate Guardian ad Litem in King and Snohomish Counties. Jeanne Marie is past president of the state Washington Women Lawyers, past chair of the Washington State Bar Association Elder Law Section and served on the executive committee of the King County Bar Association Guardianship and Elder law Section. She is a member of the American Bar Association and the ABA's Center for Professional Responsibility and the ABA Law Practice Division, and serves on the board of the National Conference of Women's Bar Associations.
