

SPONSORING WOMEN

What Men Need to Know

By Ida O. Abbott, JD

“Practical and Powerful”

It's Going to Take More Than Mentoring

“Women need the sponsorship of men, and men owe it to women, not because men are to blame but because they are in control. Otherwise they limit their firms’ potential for top performance, growth and innovation.” – Ida O. Abbott, J.D.

Ida Abbott speaks directly to men in this timely new book designed to arm them with the tools and perspective they will need to usher professional women into the top ranks of their firms. She tackles and finishes off all the tough issues: the appearance of impropriety, confusion about the nature of the relationship, managing communications, spouses. But she also clearly describes what is to be done, step-by-step.

Topics Include:

- Why Organizations Need More Women Leaders
