WOMEN'S BAR LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

OWNING THE 'CHANGE' REACTION

JULY 30 + 31, 2020

Dear Colleague:

The National Conference of Women's Bar Associations (NCWBA) offers you a variety of ways to show your support for women in the law, including sponsorship of our Annual Women's Bar Leadership Summit! The NCWBA encompasses groups of women attorneys from across the United States and Canada, providing more than 35,000 attorneys and judges with leadership support and connections, and provides a forum for exchanging ideas and best practices through our in-person and virtual events, teleconferences, webinars, e-newsletter and social media. We are an IRS Section 501(c)(6) nonprofit affiliate of the American Bar Association. Click here for a link to more information about us and our member associations. We rely on sponsorship funds to achieve our mission and fulfill our goals. A description of our sponsorship opportunities for our Annual Leadership Summit is enclosed.

Why support the NCWBA's Annual Leadership Summit?

On July 31, 2020, the NCWBA will – for the first time – hold our Annual Women's Bar Leadership Summit – Owning the 'Change' Reaction – virtually. The Summit brings together attorneys from diverse fields of law to network, build relationships, and receive high-level training for leadership in their women's organizations at home and in the profession. Our 2020 Summit program includes extraordinary speakers and panels on a variety of leadership themes and other cutting-edge topics, as well as recognizing award-winning women's bar associations with outstanding programs. Keynoting the Summit will be Kori Carew. Ms. Carew is an advocate, speaker and inclusion strategist who is passionate about people, human and civil rights, diversity, and inclusion and is a former litigator and trial attorney.

Highlights of the summit programming will include multiple virtual networking opportunities, opening remarks from Chief Judge Rebecca Pallmeyer; a dynamic conversation with Mary Reding Smith, co-founder of Military Spouse JD Network, Moya O'Connor, founder of the New York Caribbean Attorney Network, and Michelle Browning Coughlin, founder of Mother's Esquire discussing their roles as women founders of their organizations. We also will offer practical programming, recognizing it is a stressful and anxious time for many. Jeena Cho, attorney, and author of the best-selling book, "The Anxious Lawyer: An 8-Week Guide to a Joyful and Satisfying Law Practice Through Mindfulness and Meditation" will share tools for relaxing the anxious brain and practices for returning to homeostasis, and will lead us in a short guided meditation. Catherine Sanders Reach, current Director for the Center for Practice Management at the North Carolina Bar Association, will share tips on practice technology and management assistance for attorneys.

In addition to financial sponsors, the NCWBA is always looking for in-kind sponsors. Please consider supporting the NCWBA in 2020. Do not hesitate to contact me directly if you have questions or need additional information at stheberge@bernsteinshur.com / 207-228-7188, or you may contact NCWBA's Executive Director Christina Simpson at info@ncwba.org.

Sincerely,

Shiloh D. Theberge
Vice President of Fundraising and Strategic Partnership
