

We would like to request sponsorship of the National Conference of Women's Bar Associations. NCWBA is a unique organization of 60 women's bar and legal organizations representing more than 35,000 attorneys, judges, and law students. NCWBA advocates for equality, diversity, equity, and inclusion in the legal profession and society. We provide leadership and support, and we exchange best practices through our events, advocacy, and social media. To achieve these important goals, we are honored to work with leading law firms, corporations, and individuals that sponsor NCWBA and its outstanding activities, programs, and initiatives. As you understand this is an endeavor that needs allies and we hope we can add you to this list.

Sponsorship opportunities include sustaining donations to help achieve our overall mission, as well as contributions to help underwrite specific events, such as our Annual Women's Bar Leadership Summit – a national forum with programs and events for women attorneys and bar leaders held in conjunction with the American Bar Association's Annual Meeting each August; which includes cutting-edge programming, including our nationally recognized "GOOD Guys" event that features male leaders who have both proven themselves to be "Guys Overcoming Obstacles to Diversity" and have committed to demonstrate these attributes to other men as well. Additional information about NCWBA and our members, programs, and initiatives can be found at www.ncwba.org. In addition to financial donors, the NCWBA also appreciates its "in-kind sponsors," who graciously provide other important assistance, such as space for our events, program materials, etc. A description of our sponsorship opportunities is enclosed.

The 2023 Women's Bar Leadership Summit will be held August 3-5, 2023 in Denver. The 2023 Summit will feature distinguished speakers, national networking and leadership opportunities, professional development, cutting-edge topics, a GOOD Guys® program, a best practices seminar, and ways for member organizations and attorneys to utilize the support that the NCWBA provides.

Sponsorship of NCWBA is a great way to demonstrate your commitment to the advancement of women, diversity, and equity. We hope that we can count on your support. If you have questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me directly or reach out to NCWBA's Executive Director Christina Simpson (info@ncwba.org / 857-244-0174).

Sincerely,

Lindsey Savage, VP - Fundraising
